To

The Secretary to the Government of India, Home department.

Sir,

Referring to the correspondence forwarded to the Home department with the endorsement of this Government No. 1105, Local and Municipal, dated 7th May 1897, regarding the deputation of Dy Sanitary Commissioner Surg.-Major W.B. Bannerman to Bombay in view of his learning the practical methods adopted in that Presidency for combating and treating the bubonic plague, and of pursuing the scientific and bacteriological study of the plague microbe under M. Haffkine, I am directed to state that Dr. Bannerman left Madras on the 1st July 1897, and is still in Bombay. He has studied all branches of plague work in Bombay, Lanowli, Poona and Belgaum, and has inoculated several thousand persons in the affected area in the district last named, whither he wishes to to proceed again from Bombay in order to complete the enquiry into the actual efficacy of inoculation, as this would give him personal experience in working the system for combating the epidemic and would add important data to the knowledge he has already acquired. He is also arranging to carry out a series of laboratory experiments, and ^{the} Government has permitted him to continue his ~~experimental~~ studies until further orders.

2. As Dr. Bannerman has thus been employed on special duty for a longer period than six months, I am directed to request the sanction of the Government of India, under article 96 of the Civil Service Regulations, for the extension of the period of deputation.

3. I am also to request the sanction of the Government of India to exempt Dr. Bannerman from the operation of article 78 of the Civil Service Regulations, as he has continued to rent a house in Madras from the time of his departure to Bombay up to date, ~~apparently~~ because he was not aware of the period during which he would be employed at Bombay.

Enclosure.

SIR,

Article 78 of the Civil Service Regulations lays down that an officer in receipt of a house rent at a Presidency town may during his absence from it continue to draw it provided the term of his absence does not exceed two months exclusive of the months of departure and return. I may state that I left Madras on the 1st July and that according to the terms of this article if I do not return to Madras by the end of october, I will have to refund what I have already drawn in the shape of "house rent".

1. As Surgeon Major Bannerman was absent on special duty at Bombay beyond the limit prescribed in article 78 Civil Service Regulations the Presidency house rent drawn by him from 1st July to 31 October 1897 has been recovered from him. If it is the intention of Government that he should not be deprived of his house rent during the period of his absence on special duty, the sanction of the Government of India will be necessary to exempt him from the operation of Article 78 Civil Service Regulations.

2 It is requested that the period up to which Surgeon Major Bannerman will be employed on special duty may be communicated to this office and that the sanction of the Government of India may be obtained in the event of his deputation exceeding 6 months.

2/12/97.

Is application for exemption of Surg. Major Pannerman from operation of art 78 C.S. to be made to India.

The rule is apparently based on the idea that if a man is away from the Presy. Town for more than three months he can't want his house there & should have arranged to get rid of it temporarily or permanently. The argument, if this is it, is somewhat feeble, and a reference may properly be made to India.

MA 2.12.97

3/1- We may refer to India - But first find out how long he kept a house on in Madras - There is no reason why he should get house rent if he ~~kept~~ didn't maintain a house - He has given up his house, I believe - At least it was empty & let about a month ago.
