GENERAL.

No. 4129—Mis. 21-96, dated Bangalore, the 24th September 1898.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 2 of the Epidemic Diseases Regulation, 1897, the Government of Mysore are pleased to appoint the Railway Stations at Kengeri and Mysore City to be Inspection Stations, and further to prescribe the following temporary regulations:—

1. No passenger train shall leave the Kengeri Station in the direction of Mysore or the Mysore City Station in the direction of Nanjangud until the inspection hereinafter provided has been carried out and until the Guard in charge of such train has obtained a certificate from the Inspecting Officer at the Kengeri Station or the Mysore City Station, as the case may be, to the effect that all persons proceeding further by the said train, whether railway servants or passengers, are free from the bubonic plague.

2. Every passenger train arriving at Kengeri or at the Mysore City Station from the direction of Bangalore shall be emptied for the inspection of passengers in such manner as the Inspecting Officer on duty may direct, and all such facilities shall be afforded by the servants of the Railway Company as the Inspecting Officer on duty may deem to be necessary for the purposes of inspection—

(a) persons who have come by such train, whether they intend to proceed by it or not, and
(b) persons who intend to start from the Inspecting Station and to travel by such train.

3. Inspecting Officers are empowered to examine all persons arriving by, or intending to leave by, such train and to forward under proper escort such as are suffering or are suspected by them to be suffering from the bubonic plague, to such places as may be appointed for the accommodation of such persons respectively.

4. Inspecting Officers may require all passengers whom they have medically inspected to deliver up their tickets in order that some mark indicative of their having been inspected may be impressed thereon, and all passengers shall be bound to deliver up their tickets accordingly.

5. Commencing from the 1st October 1898, no person shall be booked outwards from the Bangalore direction at the following stations, viz., Kengeri and Bidadi, unless he is in possession of a certificate of exemption from disinfection in Form B attached to Notification No. 4936, dated 23rd September 1898, issued by the Resident in Mysore. Provided that this Regulation shall not operate—

(i) in the case of British or Mysore Government Officials travelling on duty who can satisfactorily establish their identity, or

(ii) in the case of persons who can produce a certificate from an official not below the rank of a Shekdar or Station House Officer that they have not within the past ten days resided within, or visited, an infected area.

6. The Police shall act under the orders given by the Inspecting Officer on duty under these regulations with regard to compelling persons to submit to such arrangements as may be made by the said officer for the purposes of inspection, and with regard to the removal of persons suffering or suspected to be suffering from bubonic plague.

7. Any person disobeying any of these regulations or any orders issued thereunder by the Inspecting Officer, shall be deemed to have committed an offence punishable under Section 188 of the Indian Penal Code, and shall be liable, on conviction, to be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.
