Misc ORDER.

Under section 37 of Act I of 1884, as amended by Acts VII of 1884 and II of 1892, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to fix the salary of Surgeon Lieutenant J. W. Cornwall at Rs 500 per mensem, exclusive of contribution for leave allowances and pension, which will be paid from municipal funds.

2. Surgeon Lieutenant J. W. Cornwall will, in addition to his salary, receive a house rent of Rs 10 and a carriage allowance of Rs 50 per mensem, and his past services under Government together with that which he will render under the Madras Municipality will be taken into account for the purpose of regulating his claim to leave.

② Vids the concluding portion of the first paragraph of Section 37 of Act I of 1884.

Dr. Cornwall specially asks for information as to what increments of salary he may expect but the order says nothing about this. A decision should be formed & intimated or a further enquiry will follow.

MA 27.6.98

I agree with the above. Mr. Brindley. March 1898

nd his past service under Government together with that which he will render under the Madras Municipality will be taken into account for the purpose of regulating his claim to leave of absence.

3. The Accountant General will be informed that Surgeon Lieutenant J. W. Cornwall should be regarded as an officer transferred to service under the Madras Municipality under the foreign service rules, contained in part VII of the Civil Service Regulations (From orders) of absence.

3. With reference to the President's query regarding the position of Dr Cornwall's allowances when his salary is raised to the maximum, it is observed that these allowances may be continued even then, if the Government sees fit.

and transfer will be made if this officer's position is now definitely settled. Perhaps the Hon. Sir H. Stiles would propose the increment of Rs 50 to be allowed.

4.7.98
I should say that, considering however minor Dr Cornwall is, an annual rise of Rs 50 p.m. until he reaches Rs 1000 wd suffice.
