Detention at Railway Inspection Stations.

Stating that only un inoculated persons found travelling in the same compartment with a plague patient are subject to — and not others.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE PLAGUE COMMISSIONER

READ—Memorandum from the Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal Department, to the Plague Commissioner, dated 3rd October 1898, No. 178-A.P.

PROCEEDINGS—No. 471, dated 29th October 1898.

As regards the detention of suspected persons at Railway Inspection Stations, the Plague Commissioner understands that, in some cases, all persons travelling in the same compartment with a person coming from an infected area are detained in camp. This seems unnecessary. If the detained person has plague when removed from the train, then all who travel with him are "contacts" and must be detained unless they have been inoculated. But if he is detained merely because "suspicious," i.e., dirty or likely to evade the rules, then there is no need to detain those who travel with him.
