I don't understand Visharam - ^{Telephone sent} ^{11/12 10 98} Is it the name of a place? ^{But} knowing the circumstances or the what locality is referred to, I can form no opinion on the words "coercion impossible". As to the Varanasi case, the P.C. seems to have taken much too much on himself - He had no authority at all to issue such orders as he has issued - Varanasi is not even one of the large towns to which the Special Rules relating to the Plague Regs would apply - If we are to begin by giving way in the very first instance in which there is a show of resistance to segregation, our cause is lost already & we may as well give up the attempt to combat the plague. The P.C. should be instructed that in these rural areas the segregation should be carried out in spite of resistance.

As to the Varanasi case, I should not question the instructions given by the Plague Commissioner. I would suggest that in any case in which segregation in rural districts, or elsewhere, is considered specially necessary, - and refusal to comply with the D.O.'s order to go into segregation is met with, - recourse might be had to the ordinary provisions of the law under the new Plague Act and the Penal Code, which is deprecated in provocation to a riot, and then the use of the baton, the bayonet and the bullet, - to suppress the riot.

In the North West case, we must await further news from the Plague Council.

Hon. Mr. Arundel (Since coming to office, I have ascertained that Visharam is in Acol T.S.). 11/12 10 98

I agree with H.E. & would wire to the P.C. that the Law should be promptly enforced - i.e. Epidemic Diseases Act & Sec 188 & P.C.

The P.C. will have received the wire sent by Secy. (so the Secy. tells me) that the law should be put in force i.e. Epid. Dis. Act & Sec 58 & P.C.

H.E. told me this morning he had issued the orders transferring "plague" from my Hon. Colleague to me but the C.S. has not got it nor was it left in the Priv. Secy's room. I have telegraphed to P.S. at Patnam Junction to know where it is. x

My dear Remembrance,

The enclosed is all that remains of a plague file which His Excellency took with him down the ^{which} Bunder Canal: the rest, Consisted mainly, I think, of a D.O. from Hammick, disappeared down stream when the office boat was upset, is not likely to be seen by mortal eyes again.

Yours sincerely
