Proceedings of the Plague Commissioner.

Read the following:-

Letter from the Collector of Salem, Ref. On. C. No. 368/P. C., dated 26th October 1898.

In continuation of my letter No. 368, dated 20th inst. I have the honour to state that I asked Captain Hodgson in charge of the troops at Vaniyambadi whether if troops return to Bangalore, the detachment may be kept at Jalarpet as now arranged. He replied in his telegram of the 25th instant that there was no objection and that he had already informed Bangalore (the Assistant Adjutant General) that they would stay at Jalarpet. I have, therefore, informed him that the troops may now return to Bangalore leaving the necessary guard for the camps at Jalarpet. There are 60 men deputed to Jalarpet which seem to be far more than necessary. I have asked Captain Hodgson to inform me if such a large guard is required.

Ref. On. C. No. 788, dated 27th October 1898.

Copy submitted to Government.

The case at Vaniyambadi has not led to any fresh cases and the town is quiet. The troops may, therefore, go back as proposed. I think it is well to keep a military guard at Jalarpet. We leave a very valuable camp there and if excitement again arises it is quite possible an attempt might be made to fire this camp.
