Read again G.O. No. 1625 D. dated 16 December 1897 communicating with remarks to the collectors concerned letters from the Surgeon General regarding the provisions of suitable quarters to live in for the Commissioned Medical Officers appointed to Plague Inspection Stations.

Read also endorsement of the Pub. Department No. 112 dated 15th January 1898, transferring with notes replies from the collectors of Bellary, Anantapur, Coimbatore, Kistna and North Arcot to G.O. No. 1625 dated 16th December 1897.

Order. The Government observes suitable accommodation for the Commissioned Medical Officers to be posted to the Plague inspection station at Arkonam is already available. The travellers' bungalow at Narayanpet may continue to be occupied by the Medical Officer and at Kondapalli the Medical Officer may occupy either the travellers' bungalow or the temporary quarters which from the collector's letter appear to be under construction. In reply to your letter No. 349/10-9-98 I have the honour to inform you that G.O. No. 238 M. Mis., dated 27th January 1898 referred to by you contains nothing to warrant the conclusion that you were to occupy the travellers' bungalow at Kondapalli free of cost. You are welcome to occupy it but must pay for your accommodation like every other person unless the Salary Board specially exempts you or reduces the rate of rent.
