Approving the recommendation of the Accountant-General that the Assistant Surgeon Chalke is not entitled to any — for the period he was at Guntakal under the orders of Surgeon-General.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From Assistant Surgeon E. L. CHALKE, M.D., Additional Medical Officer, Anantapur, to the Secretary to the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, dated 19th September 1898, No. 127.

I have the honour to report that I was ordered by Government in their Order, No. 838 P., dated 18th August 1898, to stay at Guntakal until further orders for plague duty. I was at Guntakal from the 15th August till 4th September 1898. The stay at Guntakal junction was costly, and, therefore, I had to incur extra expenditure both in the way of providing accommodation as well as giving extra wages to my servants, as provisions were very dear at the place on account of scare and plague. My servants demanded extra pay as they were unwilling to stop with me at great risk of life for less remuneration.

2. I therefore request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government to allow me the daily allowance for the extra nine days I was obliged to halt at Guntakal in the interest of the public service, as per article 1159 of Civil Service Regulations.

Forwarded to Government.

As the additional medical officers are specially appointed for plague duty and are sent wherever they may be required, the stations to which they are posted should be considered their head-quarters under article 69, Civil Service Regulations. Any records which such a plague officer would be concerned with would, it is presumed, be with him.

In these circumstances, therefore, no daily allowance is admissible to Assistant Surgeon Chalke for the period he was at Guntakal under the Surgeon-General's orders.
