THE HON'BLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

With reference to endorsement No. 406, Local and Municipal, dated the 4th April 1898 herewith returned as requested, I have the honor to state that the 4 District Surgeons at the Presidency town are already overworked and the additional work of taking finger tip impressions of the Municipal employees would no doubt throw upon them a great deal of trouble and labour. I would therefore suggest the advisability of the work being undertaken by the Municipal staff under the supervision of the Health Officer.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. Sibthorpe
