Letter no. 4708, d/ 25th Decr. 1897 in G.O. No. 289 M. d/ 1st Feby. '98.

Towards the close of the year 1897, the Municipal council of Rajahmundry requested Govt. to exempt it from the operation of Section 39-A (2) of the Act, as amended, on the ground that in view of the numerous demands on its funds for sanitary and other purposes, it could not afford to have a paid Secretary. The Sub Collector and the Collector of Godavari, through whom this paper was forwarded, were however of opinion that the catalogue of wants given by the council to illustrate

With the first of the letters read above, the Chairman forwards a resolution of the council, in which it requests, that in view of the election of a Vice Chairman for the Municipality, and of the fact that its income includes school-fees amounting to Rs 3,000, and a contribution of Rs 3,000 paid by the Taluk Board, which are not ~~incomes~~ receipts of a permanent nature, the Govt. may be pleased to reconsider its order and exemp

It is therefore submitted that the appointment of M.R.Ry. D. Basavarazu as

Resolution No. 1333 dated 12-3-1898

In view of the fact that the Council requested Government to permit it to elect a Vice Chairman, and in view to the circumstance that its income includes nearly 3000 Rs fees of the Lo[illegible]r Secondary School, and about Rs 3000 paid as contribution by the Ta[illegible] Board which incomes are not of a permanent nature, the Council requests Government to reconsider its order and exempt the Municipality from appointing a Secretary, and in case Government be not pleased to reconsider its order, it resolves as follows.—

The pay of the Secretary to start with 100 Rs rising by 10 equal annual increments of 5 Rs to 150 Rs, inclusive of horse allowance. Besides the powers which it is compulsory for the Council to delegate, the Secretary will be delegated powers of General Supervision over the out-door Staff, and Sanitation, primary Schools and public works and of fining Scavengers and Sweepers to the extent of 4 annas a month, and of revising taxes. Whoever will now be appointed, will be appointed on probation for 1 year as suggested by the Collector. Mr D. Basavarazu is elected Secretary by 12 Votes against one for Mr N. Kothanda Ramayya and on a subsequent motion by Reo Kudar, the election of Mr D. Basavarazu was made unanimous, Mr C. Venkatakristnamma Naidu not having voted he being a Candidate.

Sir,

With reference to G.O. The Council resolves that the pay of the Secretary should start with 100 Rs a month (inclusive of horse allowance) and rise by 10 equal annual increments of 5 Rs to 150 Rs, as the pay and the increments will attract a competent person and be an incentive to his working with zeal for a sufficiently long period.

In addition to the powers that should be delegated to the Secretary, the Council resolves to delegate the powers of revising taxes an powers of general supervision over the outdoor staff, sanitation, primary schools, and public works, with power to fine scavengers and sweepers to the extent of 4 annas

At the suggestion of the Collector, the Council resolved to nominate a person for its Secretary, on probation for 1 year; and on a careful consideration of all the applications, the Council unanimously nominated M. R. Ry D. Basavaraju Garu as its Secretary. He is the permanent Headmaster of the Municipal Lower Secondary School and has been for some years an Assistant Teacher in the Rajahmundry College. He passed the B.A. Degree Examination in the English and Vernacular Branches, and was Headmaster of a large Middle School here for a long time. He possesses a good knowledge of office work and accounts, having had to keep accounts, maintain and submit several registers and returns as Headmaster of that institution. He belongs to a respectable family and commands much respect and confidence in the town, and is a strong energetic officer of active habits, being able to ride. Being a native of this place, he is acquainted with all ~~the~~ parts of the town and most of its sanitary and other wants.

Mr Middlemast the Principal of the Rajahmundry College under whom he has been serving for the last 3 years strongly recommends him as "a pains-taking and thoroughly trust-worthy officer".

The Council has accordingly unanimously nominated him its Secretary and trusts that Government will be pleased to approve of it.

2. The Council repeats its prayer for exemption from the operation of Section 39 A requiring the appointment of a Secretary, but the Municipality has an annual income of Rs 34347 and for this reason and for other reasons set forth in my endorsement Dis: no: $\frac{20}{\text{Eng:}}$ dated 9th January 1898, it has already been decided by Government in G.O. no: $\frac{\text{289 Mi. Mis}}{\text{10th February 98}}$ not to grant the prayer of the Council. There are no new grounds now adduced to justify reconsideration of the matter.

3. The resolution regarding the delegation of powers is couched in very general terms. I have accordingly addressed the Chairman asking him to move the Council to specify the powers it is proposed to delegate to the Secretary by reference to section and clause &c of the act so as to avoid indefiniteness and possible dispute hereafter. The proposals so far made do not evince a liberal spirit. The Chairman may well delegate as many of his executive powers as possible, for the object of appointing a Secretary is not so much to provide the Council with an office hand as to relieve the Chairman of out door executive duties. Of course the Chairman possesses powers of control if he chooses or has occasion to exercise them over the Secretary, should he in any matter disapprove of his action.

4. The Council proposes to pay its Secretary only Rs 100 per mensem and this is the amount that I proposed in para 3 of my endorsement above referred to and the Government has provided in the Budget, though it suggested that the minimum pay might be fixed at Rs 125. Rs 100 per mensem is not perhaps a strong enough inducement to attract a very efficient person to take up the office but as the Council urges want of funds so vehemently and provides for annual increments of pay upto a maximum of Rs 150, I recommend that the initial pay fixed of Rs 100 per mensem may be approved as also the proposal to grant an annual increment of Rs 5- per annum.

5. The nominee of the Council – D. Basa- [illegible] is personally unknown to me and I confess that I should not have looked for an efficient Secretary in a schoolmaster who can have no practical experience of office management and accounts as well as of Municipal Affairs. Still, I must recommend the present nominee appointment on probation for one year in the light of the remark of the Sub Collector who does know him, that he is the best of the candidates for the office and the fact that he has been practically selected unanimously by the Council. As he is appointed on probation for one year, I shall doubtless have had ample opportunities of judging of his fitness for the post by the time the question of confirming him in the appointment comes up for settlement.
