MEMORANDUM.

Dated Madras, 3rd August 1898.

In the correspondence printed with G.O. No. 1031 Public dated 19th December 1895, the Municipal Council, Mangalore, expressed its willingness to sell to Government for Rs. 1800, the Municipal Hospital Assistant's quarters at that station. After much correspondence and delay, a detailed valuation estimate has been obtained from the Superintending Engineer, IV Circle, and the outside value of the building is now found to be Rs. 1600. The undersigned has the honour to request that the Municipal Council may be asked to report whether it is willing to accept the latter sum (Rs. 1600) for the quarters.

2. It has been ascertained that no payment has yet been made to the Municipality for the building.
