(Also the Divisional Officer and the Collector, Kistur)

Sir,

In obedience to the orders in paragraph 2 of the G.O. No 1578 M. L. S., dated 7th September 1898, I have the honor to submit that the number of peons and toties shown in the proposition statement as four include the two sets of peons and toties entertained by me in two different circles on different dates. Two additional peons and two additional toties were appointed on the 19th July 1898 as preventive staff in the 1st circle, and the same number of peons and toties was also entertained as preventive staff in the 3rd circle on the 22nd July 1898.

2. The fact that the staff for prevention was employed on two different dates for two circles, though the observation staff for all circles was appointed once and the same date may be gathered from a copy of the memorandum already submitted.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant
