No. 3.

Resolution No 3 of the Commissioners at their General Meeting held on 29th August 1898, deferring consideration of the question of establishment of a hospital for the treatment of contagious diseases.

M.R.Ry. R. N. Pragasa Mudaliar Avargal proposed and M.R.Ry. P. Subramania Iyer Avargal seconded—

"That with reference to G.O., No. 1393 M., Mis., dated 8th August 1898, the Commissioners, who are fully alive to the want of a suitable hospital for the treatment of persons suffering from contagious diseases, regret to observe that the impecunious condition of Municipal finances presents a formidable barrier to the establishment of such a hospital in the City out of Municipal funds at least in the near future; that in the crippled state of their funds, added to the unforeseen heavy expenditure on account of plague precautions, the erection of such a hospital is beyond their means; that in their view the erection of a suitable contagious disease hospital is more within the scope of Imperial funds; and that except the addition of a few more wards at the Monegar Choultry as they have done since the date of the Government order, or at Kistnampet when necessity may arise, they are not in a position to do more; the Commissioners further consider that, as regards persons suffering from communicable diseases on vessels coming into the harbour, the Marine authorities should make adequate arrangements by providing a suitable place on the shore, and that in the case of Europeans and Eurasians in the city suffering from such diseases, nothing better could be suggested than to make provision for them at the General Hospital for the present at least as hitherto until all fear of the plague vanishes, when the old Native Infirmary Hospital and Armoury Buildings, on the improvement of which the Municipality is now spending a large sum of money, may be used for the purpose, relieving the General Hospital altogether."

To this, as an amendment, Mr. Eardley Norton proposed and M.R.Ry. V. Varadappa Naidu Garu seconded—

"That in view of their present financial embarrassments, of the probable approach of plague, and of the necessity for conserving all their energies and resources to cope with its arrival, the Commissioners are of opinion that the question of founding a contagious hospital must for the present be postponed sine die."

Lost.

The original proposition was then put to the meeting and carried.
