Chairman, Municipal Council,
Rajahmundry.

The Secretary to Government
Local and Municipal Department, Madras.

Sir,

With reference to para no 4 (2) of G. O. No 493 M dated 3.3.98 reviewing the Budget of this Municipality for the year 1898-99, I have the honor to state that the abolition of the esta-blishment of road-cookies was never contemplated by the Council and it was not stated either in my letter or the Council's resolution that it was intended to abolish it.

2. Government in its order no

592 M. dated 18.3.97 sanctioned the increase of 1 Re in the salaries of Road coolies but deducted the amount of Rs 216 provided for their pay from that of Rs 732 provided under "Public works Establishment" and showed the same under repairs to Communications. Their salaries were therefore debited to expenditure under repairs to Communications in 1897.

The same procedure was adopted for the next year, that is for the current year 1898-99 and they are paid from the amount provided under Repairs to Communications.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
Infaladung apnasadanayadu.
Chairman.
