Madura DISTRICT COLLECTOR'S OFFICE,
Dated Madura 24th October 1898.

No. 760 of 98

FROM

J. G. D. Partridge Esq.

COLLECTOR OF THE

Madura District.

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Local and Municipal DEPARTMENT,

Madras.

SIR,

The Sub. Collector, Dindigul is ex-officio Member of Periyakulam and Palni Municipalities, besides Dindigul which is his head quarters.

2. He reports that he can not possibly attend more than a very few meetings yearly at the two former towns owing to their distance and to his heavy work.

3. It is evident from the last year's attendance that he cannot and does not attend Palni Municipality frequently though he is constantly on tour, quite 6 months in the year.

4. In other Districts, I have felt the difficulty of attending even in one

Municipality outside my headquarters more than 3 or 4 times a year

5. Section 9 of the Municipal act makes the Revenue Officer a Member of the Municipal Council and so it will not be feasible to appoint any person in his place, but I think the Divisional Officers should not be called upon to explain every year his reason for not attending many meetings

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant

Chunammun N
for collector
