V. P. No.

467. & 26.9.98. from Venka

ramanappa, late Conservancy

Asst. Inspector, Adoni

Municipality

TRANSLATION.

The pch. was first an attendant in the Collector's Office and then when Adoni was constituted into a Municipality, the Municipal Council appointed him a bill. collector. During the famine of 1876-77 the pch. did good service in the matter of the distribution of amongst the poor of money and clothing given by charitable gentlemen and in return for this was promoted to an appointment of Rs. 15 viz that of Conservancy Asst. Inspector. He served in this capacity for about 28 years and then fell sick of fever. The Municipal Council hereupon thought him unfit for further service and he had to retire.

etire on a gratuity of Rs. 90.
 He has now recovered and is strong enough to serve the Municipality for five years more.
 There is no can be no objection to his reemployment as many pensioners have served the Council before as Managers &c.
 The M. Pr. prays that Govt.
 will be pleased to direct the President to give him his old appointment or the at least that of bill collector
 for five years more.
