I am to know to forward to you copy of (1) a second official from the Comm- of Police to me d.
 14.7.98 & (2) letter from Comm- Police bearing 7457 d. 8th oct-98. I think it would be well to consider what you intend to do a report Police an instance of Hagen heake out in the City
 I do not know if the matter has been considered The keep the job from the Police via Hagen heake small & I think think it would be well to put the Comm- of the City to put list of men available persons Constable etc - who could be selected at once on request such as Police from the prison Camp etc.
 These men, with the sanction of the Com, be given Police summons & irregular Police -

No. 7457 of 1898.

From

R. H. Vincent, Esquire, C. J. E., Commissioner of Police, Bombay;

Police Commissioner's Office.

In reply to your letter No. 1581 of the 4th Instant, I have the honor to inform you that Plague operations in this City have always been under the management of the Municipality or of a Special Plague Committee and therefore any special Police arrangements were not necessitated. Assistance was, however, given to the Plague authorities as far as possible in the house to house visitations, removal of contacts, &c. but no additional Police were entertained at any time.

(watchman) which I supplied & to whom I granted Police certificates

I have the honor to be

My dear Haunnick,

I enclose a letter from Commissioner of Mice, Bombay, re plague arrangements.

Police proper appear to have had nothing to do with them.

These.
It must be remembered that the Police in Bombay are double than in Madras & re St. require extra men even for the house to Lower visitation. Your obedient
O. P. Agar
