Private charity.—No organized private charity at work. Some gentlemen at Askapur are feeding between 20 and 30 helpless people daily. It is reported that in Pattapur a private gentleman has of late undertaken to feed about 100 people a day for a month.

INSPECTIONS OF THE DISTRICT OFFICERS.

Taluk and places visited.—The Principal Assistant Collector has visited six villages; the Senior Assistant Collector one village; the General Deputy Collector, Goomsur, eleven villages; and the Head-quarters Deputy Collector seventeen villages in their respective divisions. I have visited Kasibugga, Pata Tekkali, Tekkali and Parlákimedi.

There is nothing important to record. The Koitakhandi litigation and all relief operations are now at an end; it may be said that the country is still taking shape. The only thing that is still taking shape is the country.

There is nothing important to record. The Koitakhandi kitchen has been closed, and all relief operations are now at an end; it merely remains to collect a few cloths from defaulting weavers. The audit of famine expenditure is progressing, but it will still take some time before all items are finally adjusted.

Prices continue to fall slightly, and a considerable fall in the price of rice may be looked for at a very early date. Light paddy is being harvested, and yields a good crop, and heavy paddy everywhere is very promising, except in parts of Atagada, Suradā and Chikati where considerable damage has been caused by grasshoppers.

Private charity has now resumed its ordinary course, and provides for all those who were till lately in receipt of Government relief and unable to earn their living by labour.
