Sir,

N. Dis. No. 1327
Forwarded.

With reference to G.O. dated 22-10-98
No. 1810-M, I have the honor to report that the question of revising the house and land tax registers was considered at a meeting of the Council held on 4th November 1897 and it was resolved to take up the revision on receipt of the plans and registers expected from the Town Survey Department Madras. The Superintendent of the Department, lastly informed me that the registers and plans could not be got ready before the close of December next.

Madras

The

Council therefore resolved at its meeting held on the 1st Instant to revise the registers without the aid of survey plans and registers. I have applied to the Government for sanction to appoint a temporary establishment for re-measuring the houses and preparing registers in my letter No ²³⁵/_{9 11 98} the establishment will be entertained and work commenced from the 16th Instant, in anticipation of the sanction of Government.
