2. It would have been well if the sum of Rs 470 allotted from the closing balance for making the old Teluk Cutcherry for a rest house had not been expended or liability to that extent actually incurred in the face of increasing outlay on account of plague.
3. The allotment for repairs to drainage is in G.O. No. 310 M. dated 2.2.98, while it is shown by the Chairman as to only in his statement.

Order 21.11.98 For Jy. Collector

From The Chairman
Municipal Council
Karris.

Order No. 2056 Karris & 3/12/98 No. 18.

For expenditure on plague preventive measures in the current year, the Municipal Council is requested to reserve in addition to the unexpended balance of Rs 432 in the provision for epidemic charges, the balance of the allotments amounting to Rs 210, shown in column 10 of the statement. The necessary provision should be made in the revised estimate.

2. With reference to paragraph 3 of the Collector's endorsement, it is observed that the sum of Rs 110 - herein referred to, includes the allotment of Rs 60 for the drain cleaning

Through,

The Collector of Coimbatore.

Sir,

I beg to submit herewith a statement showing the balances available for plague expenditure as directed in G. O. No. 2031 dated 22nd October

2. The provision made in the budget
1898-99 on account of plague was Rs. 400.

Subsequent allotment of Rs. 350 from the general savings in anticipation of sanction of Government has been made by the Council, thus making provision for plague expenditure Rs. 750.

Sum Rs. 314-6-3 have been spent chiefly account of instruments, appliances &c for hospital, supplied from the Government stores under indent sent by the District Medical Officer.

The additional sum of Rs. 350 was provided by the Council to meet the charges for segregation sheds and the like. The entertainment of a hospital assistant, nurses and ward servants will require additional funds, the consideration of which has been postponed.

3. The anticipated closing balance at the close of 1898-99 as reviewed with reference to the actual balance on the 31st March 1898 is Rs. 1170, and out of this balance Rs. 1040 have been already allotted and sanctioned by the Council. The allotments from the closing balance are made up of Rs. 470 for making the old Taluk Buteherry fit for a rest house, Rs. 220 for an additional teacher and normal stipends &c to teachers undergoing training and Rs. 350 for increasing the allotment for plague expenditure.

4. All the works provided in the budget have been completed. There remains only Rs. 100-00 available under communications, but under buildings, on account of subsequent allotments as stated in paragraph 3, the expenditure or liability has come up to Rs. 850 against Rs. 100. of the budget. Under drainage and water supply Rs. 110 remain unspent, which may also be utilized for plague expenditure.
