III Read h.o no 1467 m. mis dated 22nd September 1898 directing the Prosecution of the defaulters in the matter of removing prickly-pear and more particularly so in the case of councillors and requesting the collector to warn the councillors to be punctual in attending the meetings and the collector's footnote thereon requesting the chairman to communicate para 2 the h.o to all the councillors and im on them the desirability of being punctual in attending the meetings of the council. The l. o is recorded.

The council regret that the resolution no 3 dated 5th July 98 has not been considered in full. They feel that they have been rather severely dealt with in the collector being asked to warn them for any unpunctual attendance on their part (one councillor dissenting to the 2nd part)

The chairman is requested to send a circular asking the councillors to be punctual in their attendance at the meetings of the council
