Sir,

In the budget for the current official year, a provision of Rs 7040 was made on account of the repayment of debt and interest on loan for the water works sanctioned vide G.O. No 146 M., dated 3rd February 1897. Out of this allotment Rs 2470-7-1 was paid to Government on 13th July 1898 leaving a balance of Rs 4569-8-11 to be still paid up before the close of the year. The Council had to make special provision on account of plague charges agreeably to G.O. Nos 514 P., dated 25th May 1898 and 596 P., dated 20th June 1898 and it cannot possibly do so without touching on many an allotment made for necessary works and items. The Council is meeting the payment for water works loan from its ordinary resources without the aid of water tax. I have, therefore, the honour to request that Government will be pleased to allow the Council to postpone the payment of the balance till the water works are completed or at least till such time as water tax will be levied in this Municipality.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Chairman.
