TRICHINOPOLY.

To,

FORT ST. GEORGE.

Through the Dy Collector of Trichinopoly.

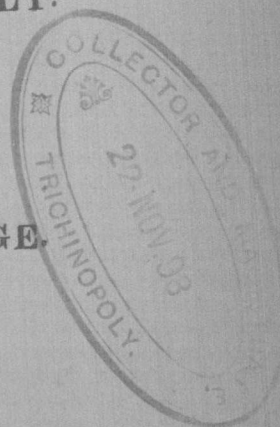

SIR,

I have the honor to report for the approval of the Government, a Resolution of the Municipal Council closing the Chinnakada market temporarily under section 194(2). This market is a small and unimportant one, yielding only an income of Rs 285-0-0 per annum and located in a small isolated building, which is required for segregating plague contacts of the Brahmin community. In this connection, I beg also to inform the Government that another large building (the old jail) in charge of the Council has been set apart for the use of the Plague contacts and patients of the Muhamadan and the silk weaver communities.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your most obedient servant
