2. I agree with the Sub Collector and I am also of opinion that the Shroff is sufficiently well paid. Shroffs on Rs 10 in the service of Govt have much more responsible work.

The Sub Collector & Collector of the District

Sir,

I have the honor to submit that

The pay of the Shroff Rs 10 per mensem is absolutely insufficient seeing that the duties to be discharged by him are of a responsible character. The Council proposed to raise his pay from Rs 10 to Rs 12 in the Budget of this year, submitted to Government last December, but the Government did not sanction the proposal. The Shroff has deposited in the Savings Bank of Chingleput Rs 200 as security for the due discharge of his duties. The interest he is able to realize is only Rs 7-8-0 a year. If he had lent out the said Rs 200.

If instead of depositing it in the Savings Bank, he would be able to get Rs 24 per year. Thus he is a loser to the extent of Rs 16½ per year, or about 1½ per month. The present pay that he gets is Rs 10 per month, and if 1½ were to be deducted from this, his pay practically comes to only Rs 8½ per month.

So the Council again wishes to approach the Government with a proposal to raise the Shroff's pay from Rs 10 to Rs 12 per mensem.

2. The resolutions passed by the Council for this purpose are herewith submitted for favourable consideration.
