From the Registrar, High Court of Judicature, Madras, dated 3rd December 1897, Ref. on Cur. No. 2613.

Order—No. 57, Financial, dated 24th January 1898.

Under the orders read at the head of these proceedings, casual leave should not be granted for a longer period than five days at a time or for more than ten days in a year, gazetted holidays being excluded from the calculation when they immediately precede or succeed the five days' limit, but being included when they occur in the middle of that limit. Sundays, however, may be excluded whether they occur at the beginning, in the middle, or at the end of the five days' limit.

2. In re-issuing these orders, His Excellency the Governor in Council considers that the Christmas and Easter vacations should be excluded from the foregoing concessions, and in future these holidays shall not be added to casual leave.
