Re-impotation of Empty Baskets.

In reply to your letter No. 1357 of 1898 dated 18th August 1898, I have the honor to inform you that these two consignments were booked from Victoria Terminus and improperly declared as bundles of matting, in consequence of which they were not detected at our junction.

The matter has been brought to the notice of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway and the General Traffic Manager writes that he much regrets the incident which has had his attention.

I have for
