Sir
 I have to inform, with reference to your letter of 10th October 1898. By order, the Employment of Inspectors is at Police inspection stations, & their to be used that I consider that as Police & Inspectors are European & Constables but not our requirements & if you can send an European & Constable, the Inspectors there can be removed. As to the Inspectors for the present I believe like the Inspectors to stay there. It is a little some place & the ^{Medical Officer} there needs better advice than can be given him by the H. Constable. I have asked all the Constables concerned to report, what is the present Police arrangements as they are so different in different districts & I will, as soon as I hear from them, recommend the change I think necessary. As regards the ^{Police} Constables for the two stations, they do not need of European & Constables, but if European & Constables are not sent Inquiring whether an European Head Constable or a Smart Native all requirements at the ^{inspection} stations where an Inspector is posted.

(2) At present if you can send a Smart European & Constable, the Inspectors there can send back. His duty is chiefly checking the guards at the ^{Seegah} & Hospital Camp. And an European & Constable can do that.
 The ^{Police} Constables from Native & Constables are required.

THE Plague Commissioner, Madras.

SIR,

ENCLOSURES.

An Inspector of Police is at present employed at each of the Railway Stations of Jalarpet, Pakala, Hindupur and Guntakal in connection with the Examination of passengers coming from plague-infected areas. At Arkonam, Singabhadra, Kondapalli and Hospet a European Head Constable is found to be sufficient and I have the honour to enquire whether an officer of similar rank or even a smart native Head Constable would not meet all requirements at the Stations where an Inspector is now posted.

At Jalarpet, there is already a European Head Constable and at Pakala and Hindupur, I think a Native Head Constable would be sufficient. Guntakal is, I believe, no longer an inspection Station and I shall be glad of your opinion as to the strength of Police required there. It seems to me, however, to be quite unnecessary.
