TO

THE

Plague Commissioner,
Madras.

SIR,

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to sanction at a very early date the construction of a plague shed at Tiruvallur at a cost of about Rs 200. Though Government has decided in its order No 1090 P. dated 17: September 1898, that plague sheds are not necessary at Railway stations other than the inspection stations and though there are sheds at Arkonam and Perambur, I consider one necessary at present at Tiruvallur as it is a large place and is resorted to by many persons at the time of monthly and other festivals.

2. The District Medical and Sanitary officer agrees with me that a shed should
