15. Read petition from Languerkhanda Munastah Vaggaravelu humbly requesting that he either be excused depositing security as storekeeper, for which duty he draws no salary, and that some other higher paid clerk be appointed for the purpose, or that the Council will be pleased to raise the salary of Languerkhanda Munastah from Rs. 750 to if he is to continue the work of storekeeper in addition to his own legitimate duties - the excess expenditure being met from the

the savings effected under the head of "Choultry Endowment".

The Council resolve to give him an increment of rupee per mensem with effect from the 1st Instant in view of the Langherkhana fundastah being called upon to attend to the duties of a storekeeper as well. The Sanction of Government will be obtained -

Gumastah	8.0-0				For increasing the salary of the Langherkhana Gumastah from Rs 7 per mensem to Rs 8 per mensem from 1st January 1898 to enable him to deposit the necessary security for his office, as required in his audit notes for 1896-97. The audit having been completed in July 1897 it was not possible to anticipate this charge for inclusion in the budget for 1897-98 which was submitted on the 20th December 1896. The salary of the Langherkhana Gumastah was reduced from Rs 12 to Rs 7 in 1896-97. In addition to the work of Langherkhana Gumastah he is also in charge of the office stores for which extra work he draws no salary.
