GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From E. SCOTT, Esq., President, District Board, Nellore, to the Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal Department, dated 16th November 1897, No. 1983-D.B.

With reference to G.O., No. 717 L., dated 13th April 1897, I have the honour to point out that the notification therein published requires modification as the villages and hamlets shown in column 3 of the schedule annexed to it constitute the proposed unions. The notification, as it stands at present, is to the effect that they should be excluded from the unions.

2. I further beg to state that the hamlet (Gollapalli) attached to the Atmakúru village and referred to in paragraph 3 of No. 635-D.B. of 1897 embodied in the Government Order under reply is a mistake for Perareddipalli and to request that the necessary alteration may be caused to be made in the revised notification.

3. The limits of the two new unions are as follows:—

(1) Udayagiri union consists of survey Nos. 1 to 533 of Udayagiri (Kondayapalem)—vide the descriptive memoir of the Udayagiri (Kondayapalem) village in the settlement register. This may, I suggest, be inserted in the notification.

(2) Atmakúru union is reported by the President of the taluk board to consist of khandams Nos. 7, 8 and 11 to 23 of the survey village of Atmakúru with Perareddipalli, but he is not able to give any authority for this statement, though there is no objection to its acceptance, as correct. The descriptive memoir of the Atmakúru village given in the settlement register shows that the village consists of 23 khandams, but does not show what khandams constitute the Atmakúru village proper and its hamlet Perareddipalli. It is therefore advisable that it should be notified that the union comprises the khandams of Atmakúru village given by the Deputy Collector.

Ref. No. 1327.

The President is requested to submit a revised notification showing all the villages and hamlets which have to be excluded from the Atmakúru and Udayagiri unions.

LOCAL & MUNICIPAL DEPT. No. 3064

From E. Scott Esquire,
President, District Board, Nellore.

To the Secretary to Government,
Local and Municipal Department,
Madras.

Sir,

With reference to G.O. No. 717 L. dated 13" April 1897, I have the honour to point out that the notification therein published requires modification as the villages and hamlets shown in column 3 of the schedule annexed to it constitute the proposed unions. The notification, as it stands at present, is to the effect that they should be excluded from the Unions.

2. I further beg to state that the hamlet (Gollapalli) attached to the Atmakur village and referred to in para 3 of No. 635/D.B. of 97 embodied in the G.O. under reply is a mistake for Peraredipalli and to request that the necessary alteration may be caused to be made in the revised notification.

3. The limits of the two new Unions are as follows:—

(1) Udayagiri Union consists of survey Nos. 1 to 533 of Udayagiri (Koudayapalyem) vide the descriptive memoir of the Udayagiri (Koudaya-palyem) village in the settlement register. This may, I suggest, be inserted in the notification.

(2) Atmakur Union is reported by the President of the Taluk Board to consist of Khandams Nos. 7, 8 and 11 to 23 of the survey village of Atmakur with Péraveddipalli, but he is not able to give any authority for this statement, though there is no objection to its acceptance, as correct. The descriptive memoir of the Atmakur village given in the settlement register shows that the village consists of 23 khandams, but does not show what khandams constitute the Atmakur village proper and its hamlet Péraveddipalli. It is therefore advisible that it should be notified that the Union comprises the khandams of Atmakur village given by the Deputy Collector.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

E Ivor

President
