SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT
 LOCAL & MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT

Dear Mr. Freeman here,

Herewith a telegram from the Collector of Godavari, in response to mine of yesterday - which is enclosed for your information. From the Chairman of Bezawada who called on me to-day, I ascertained that there can be no doubt persons ^{large}

by resort from Solapur and the Nizam's Dominions
to this place.

If in the opinion of the Collector there is a decided danger
of importation of plague, there ought to be no hesitation in stopping it being held. It is useless to attempt to distinguish men
coming from Warangal
from those coming from

Nuldvoog. When pestilence does come, such festivals would necessarily be prohibited.
how much wiser
therefore to prevent them before appearance of the disease.

Some understanding
should be arrived at
on the subject, by Collectors being ordered to stop all festivals which are likely to attract persons from infected area. Such warnings I would confide

to Kurnool,
anari, Kistna Gaujam, Bellary and Malabar.

Yours faithfully
W. W. W.
