SIR,

In connection with the impending removal of the plague inspection station at the Guntakal junction to Tungabhadra on the Madras Railway, I have the honour to recommend that a small post office be opened in the vicinity of the latter, which is, I believe, served at present from Kosigi, some 8 or 9 miles off. The office may be located at Katsapuram, the nearest village to the railway station and about a quarter of a mile from it on the
