(1898)

CURRENT No. 456

Endt. No.304,d/21-10-98.

From The Surgeon-General,
with the Government of Madras.

Order

Forwarded to the Collector, North Arcot for favour of opinion. Arkonam is in a peculiar position, being midway to Madras from all our frontier stations.

No. 0/1570

It does not ever seem likely that it will have a lax population in its camp or hospital, as all suspicious persons will be probably always removed from the trains
at Jalarpet, Hospet, Guntakal or Tungabhadra.

My own idea is that the actual accommodation existing viz: Hospital for 4 European & 8 natives and camp for Europeans 4, and natives 10, is sufficient.
The establishment appear to me sufficient for present purposes, it can of course be enlarged if many inmates are in the camp. The supply of medicines appears to be short.
