Copy of letter Refon Ltr No 92 of 98 despatched on 22-1-98 from the President, Taluk Board Bezawada to the President District Board Kistna.

I have the honor to inform you that the Taluk Board, Bezawada, has passed a resolution (Copy enclosed) approving of the grant of famine allowance to the servants under this Board, drawing Rs 16 or less per mensem. This has been embodied in the Taluk Board Budget for 97-98 for the period from September 1897 to March 1898.

Vide p. 24262
14-12-97

2. The District Board has also resolved to give the same allowance to the servants under the District Board, and it has been embodied in the budget for 97-98.

3. It seems to me that there is no doubt that Government will sanction the grants of this allowance to the servants of the District and Taluk Boards. These servants are in urgent present need of this small help and I beg to suggest therefore that they may be allowed to draw the allowance in anticipation of Government sanction.

With reference to your letter Ref on Cno. $\frac{1014}{audit}$ of 97 despatched on 20-12-97, I have the honor to forward herewith the Budget estimate of famine expenditure for 6 months commencing October 1897 of the year 1897-98.

2. The Taluk Board in the enclosed copy of its resolution No. $\frac{12}{21-12-97}$ sanctioned the allowance to Union servants so far as the Panchayets could find funds and deferred the question of grant of allowance to Taluk Board servants till February 1898, and savings might be available.

3. A revised estimate will be sent after the close of the year as required in para 2 of the letter No. $\frac{271a}{413}$
