NOTE.—The receipt should be sent by the Consignor to the Consignee, as the Company reserve to themselves the right of refusing to deliver the parcel without the production of this receipt duly endorsed.

If the Consignee does not attend himself, he must endorse a request for delivery to the person sent for the articles, otherwise they will not be given up.

When goods are booked to a Station where the Company has a Carting Agency, the Consignor should advise the Consignee whether the charge for carting to the Consignee's address has been paid or not, so that if it has not, and the Consignee wishes the parcel to be carted by the Company's Agency, he may advise the Station Master to that effect, otherwise it will be kept till called for at the owner's risk, and wharfage charges will be incurred.

It must be distinctly understood that the Company claim the right to correct any charges made on any parcel that may be undercharged in this receipt, and that they reserve to themselves the right of re-measurement, re-weighment, and re-calculation at the destination, and the goods are subject to a lien, not only for that particular charge, but also for any general balance that may be due to the Company by the owner, Consignor or Consignee; and that it will only be carried subject to the conditions stated on the other side, and to the Rules, Regulations, wharfage, and other charges, &c., in force, on each Railway over which the goods may be carried.

The sender is bound to truly declare the contents of any parcel tendered for despatch under a penalty of Rs. 5 per maund.

* Box, Basket, or Bundle, as the case may be, to be entered.

[For conditions of Carriage see on the back.]
