Madras.

To

The Plague Commissioner,

Madras.

Copy of a telegram from the Madras Government, Public Department, to the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, dated 11th October 1898, No. 589.

Your Demi-Official 324 first instant Bannerman must remain deputy Sanitary Commissioner and be available for plague work wherever he may be required. Pakala requires European Medical Officer. Reeves must therefore remain until arrival of Doctors from England he can then be placed dis-posal Madras Municipality for supervision plague hospitals his place being taken by one of the English Doctors preferably one of those who have already been some months in India.
