To P. M. T. "Madan Kumbhakar"

The P. M. T. Madan Kumbhakar is ^{requested} to if possible to let the P. Comm have the names and addresses of say three or four of the leading & most influential men of each such a Caste. For Muhammadan perhaps six names might be given. The names sh^d be shown with the Caste of the gentleman.

When the P. Comm has a list, he will have the names & addresses printed on a leaflet & the paper will be available for all the P. Comm officers. This may be very useful for a P. Comm officer when dealing with any particular house know where the nearest influential gentleman is of the Caste ^{of the house} is so that he may call in his apartment if required for the purpose of persuasion & advice. This be a great help, if P. Comm officers in their duties can easily get hold of influential an official certificate. If papers be given had several players given in than the appointed, many of them shangers, and for such officers a list of influential officials & residents with their addresses & cast or creed will be very useful.
