In the village of Halaharvi Alur Taluk there is a public well for the maintenance of which the marginally noted inam was assigned to one Nagana fowda and his heirs. The number of the title deed is 695.

The well is very ^{useful} to the villagers, but is not in good order at present. The cost of repairing it is estimated at Rs. 250/. Boggana fowda, son of the original inamdar, has been on several occasions warned to have the well repaired but to no effect. On the last occasion he was given 6 months' time at his own request. The time expired 18 months ago, but the well has not been touched. The inamdar is reported to be ~~maintain~~ in straitened circumstances and is not likely to execute the necessary repairs. On the suggestion of the Divisional Officer the Taluk Board, Adoni, has in its resolution no: 9 d/ 2nd Aug.
