Enclosur .

SIR,

With reference to your enclosure
-ment 233 dated 1 March 1898, I have the honor to state that there would seem no justifi-cation for the choice of the managers of the municipal office for the duty stated.
Erode possesses no Certificate Sanitary Inspector, but it had an untrained Sanitary Inspector who could have done the work presumably as well as the un-trained office manager. The fact remains, however, that the man did fulfil the duty under the orders of the Council.
This being so, I would advise that the allowance be passed on in his producing a certificate to the effect that he was put to actual expense by undertaking the duty named by hire of conveyances. Further duty shall be fulfilled, without advance, by the Sanitary staff of the municipality.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Yours most obedt servt
