Madras, 19th October 1898.

From

J. N. Atkinson, Esquire.,

Protector of Emigrants,

Madras.

To

The Plague Commissioner,

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that people are taken from here to Negapatam and thence despatched as emigrants to the Straits Settlements, But emigration to the Straits Settlements is outside the Indian Emigration Act XXI of 1883 with which alone I have to deal. It might be well to stop the Straits Emigration also until the plague abates.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(signed)

J.N.Atkinson

Protector of Emigrants.
