The Sub Collector and President, Taluk

Board of Revenue

arrangements for plague observation had commenced in the sub. division, there is immense correspondence in his office in connection with the supply of stores, appointments, construction of sheds and checking the bills including the salary and contingent bills of the Road Station officers and that it is not possible for the present establishment of his office to do this

additional work with promptitude and efficiency, and requests that an additional Clerk on Rs 20 may be sanctioned temporarily for 3 months.

2. The Road Frontier Stations are under the direct control and supervision of the Sub-Collector, while the observation staff is working under the District Medical and Sanitary Officer. I consider the additional clerk applied for by the sub collector and President, Taluk Board is necessary and I have authorized him to entertain one in anticipation of your sanction which I request may be accorded.
