Dear Mr. Trevelyan,
 I am of the 13th inst.
 I think telegraphing unnecessary under the circumstances you state as a routine measure but would make the
 Mr. Os understood that when occasion is suspected, or when there is any information gained by them that they think would be of utility (in respect to the individuals)

My dear Morris,
 Kindly let me know whether tickets issued in the infected parts of the Vizianagour are punched at issue or before being brought to our frontier with a distinctive mark.
 I suppose such ~~It is apparent that similar~~ tickets issued in the Bo.
 Pres? are so marked.

25-4-98

The Coll. of Kestins is informed that as passengers from infected parts bring distinctively marked tickets and can be easily found, it is unnecessary for the inspecting medical officer at Kondapalli to telegraph their names & addresses down the line except in cases of rebooking.
 They can ^{generally} be sent by the hand of the train as is done by the other medical inspecting officers.

This seems premature until we know that tickets are distinctively punched in Hyderabad territory.

From inquiries made by foot, it does not ^{doubtful whether} appear that persons arriving from ^{the infected parts of} the Nizam's dominions bring specially punched tickets. It is therefore necessary that the tickets of such persons should be punched by the inspecting medical officers at Tanjorebadra and Kondapalli, so that the fact ~~passengers may be easily traced~~
~~and kept under observation~~ ~~for ten days~~ of their having come from a ^{district} ~~plague infected~~ ~~provinces~~ may be at once known at the station of destination and arrangements made, to keep them under observation for ten days.

2. It should be pointed out to the inspecting medical officer at Kondapalli that it is not necessary to telegraph as a rule to the station of destination the names and addresses of travellers from infected areas who pass through Kondapalli. The intimation may be sent by the forward of the train as is done at other inspection stations.

My dear Friend,

On the 14th May I replied to a portion of your D.O. 10 P. of the 25th April about the purchasing of railway tickets issued at stations in plague infected parts of the Bombay Presidency. But for want of a reply from the Nizam's State Railway I could not say what was being done in Hyderabad State.

I have this morning after several reminders received a letter from the Traffic Manager of H. H. the Nizam's Guaranteed State Railway
