2. If this application is sanctioned, the collection of taxes will be greatly facilitated. Without police assistance the bill collectors are afraid to distrain. The assistance of the ordinary police is only granted on the special request of the Chairman & then only grudgingly. The Station House Officer probably finds it difficult to spare men.

3. The grant of the powers applied for would also be in the interests of sanitation.

4. It would be the duty of the Council of course to see that they were not abused.
