SUBJECT.

Stating that the Agent Southern Mah-ratta Railway Company complains that the Collector of Bellary has withdrawn the exemption granted under clause 30 of Madras Govt notification in G.O. 93 P. dated 21st February 1898 in favour of railway employees travelling by railway on duty.

note. Addl Regulation 30 as originally published (note G.O. No 930 d/26-2-98) allowed the C.Ms to exempt any employees from taking out passports. The Govt of India objected to the wording of the Reg on the ground that it permitted exemption of particular classes of persons. The Regulation was then revised (note G.O. 330 d/14-4-98) & the C.Ms can now exempt persons only if there is no ground for suspecting them of infection. We do not know how any employees travelling mostly by rail have been dealt with by the C.Ms under the revised Regulation.
