inspected and certified under Pilgrim Ship Act; hence it would be useless to allow departure from Guntakal at present unless similar detention ordered at Beypore which would probably be unpalatable. Should we pay fares?
To train not necessary,
but so many carriages may have to be paid for —

③ Should be 19th morning —
Why soon 18th (19th) when steamer only due on 25th?

④ Ship has to be inspected &
certified under XIV of '95 —

⑤ Doctor may be sent to Karachi pilgrim ship provided arrangements have been made ~~to send~~ to get another doctor at Karachi, not otherwise — But ⑥ Notifn to be revised so as to contain detention until steamer ready

If less than 100 pilgrims, ship not bound to provide a doctor, so we must send one as far as Karachi —

① Coll. asked to explain by letter.

② Await Coll's explanation.

③ M.O. told to postpone issue of passes to leave Camp until advised by Govt that steamer is ready

④ Coll. warned to be ready.

⑤ Will be borne in mind.

⑥ On looking into Notifn of G.O. $\frac{8.P}{7.2.98}$ I find the powers of detention in Camp by M.O. are sufficient, so have instructed M.O. as in (3) without issuing new Notifn.
