Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that there was a case of death by a handy passing over a boy who was playing on a marble in the middle of the road. The boy was so engrossed in his play that he did not hear the noise of the handy coming towards him although his face was turned in its direction; and the handy that a byelaw may be passed to the effect that all carts without springs passing through streets must be preceded by their drivers who shall lead them within the municipal limits.

4. A copy of the resolu-tion adopting the proposal to make a byelaw to the effect is enclosed.

5. I have therefore the honor to request that You will be good enough to accord your sanction to the said

It is probably unnecessary to require that carts should be led except when going down an incline. Country carts in this district are not fitted with brakes, and there are several steep inclines on the roads in Bezavada, down which carts run at a considerable pace, and a driver sitting in his cart can seldom control his bullocks on them. It would be well to direct that at such places they should be led.
