H. S. D. Harding Esquire, Sub Collector of Cuddapah,

TO

THE

Plague Commission,
Madras.

SIR,

In discussing plague matters with the Sub Collector and Local Engineer here, we came to the conclusion that at frontier stations sheds to hold 12 segregated persons were larger and more expensive than assumed necessary, and therefore decided for the time to build sheds that would hold 6 persons only. As soon as the frontier stations are in working order, people will avoid those routes and if they come in at all will cross the hills by bypaths.

in all directions so that it seems very impracticable that we shall have any body in the segregated sheds at all. I therefore sanctioned sheds for only and they are to be constructed accordingly. I don't reading the printed papers again today, it occurs to me that I have no authority to modify the sanctioned scheme in this way.
Sheds to hold 12 have been sanctioned by Government. I have the honour to request that for the present they may be built large enough for 6 persons only. They can be easily added to if that ever becomes necessary. Please operations are very expensive and I am anxious to keep my expenditure as low as is consistent with safety.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Yours most obedt. Servt,
H. S. Cunningham
A. C. Colville
