Enclosure.

SIR,

With reference to the Combinatore Muni Budget for 1898-99, I have the honor to submit the following remarks:-

(1) The increase under "Registration of Births & Deaths" as compared with the current year has not been ex-plained in the Chairman's letter.

Registers of births
and deaths

It is evidently due to enhanced pay proposed to be given to the Regis-tration clerks. In view of the de-
-fective results produced last year, I am not in favour of the proposal.

(2) The allotment for Conservancy is 30.1 percent of the estimated re-ceipts. The Council's proposals con-tained in para 79 of the Budget letter regarding the employment of a Second Sanitary

BACK PAPERS.

Sanitary Inspector and otherwise strengthening the staff have my approval.

(3) It is a matter for regret that my advice with reference to reducing the number of Sweepers and raising that of scavengers, made in my review of the last budget, has not engaged the Council's attention.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Yours most obediently,

W. T. W.
