Stating that Dr. Cornwall who has been appointed Health Officer, for orders to the Surgeon General.

Separate orders will have to issue as to his pay. The rate proposed by the S.G. is a trifle high. I think for so junior an officer; but it is not worth while arguing about Rs 50 a month. Rs 600 may pass.

Local & Municipal Department,
FORT ST. GEORGE,

10th March 1898.

My dear Harrison,

The last issue of the Fort Saint George Gazette announces the appointment of Surgeon Lieutenant Cornwall, as Health Officer of the Madras Municipality. This officer is now employed on plague duty in Karachi and draws a salary of Rs 350 and a plague allowance of Rs 200 and it is proposed to fix his salary as Health Officer at Rs 650.

I am directed to ask you whether this amount is in accordance with Article 806 (iv) of the Civil Service Regulations and if it is not, what ~~pay~~ may be sanctioned for him.

Yours sincerely

O/c (Sd) H. Tremenheere

P.S. I wish to draw attention to the word "ordinarily" in 806 iv 1 and to clause (2) applying to duties ^{certainly} unusual responsibility and requiring special capacity.

My dear Remembrance

Health-officer Madras.

Supt. Cornwall can get 437 1/2 p.m. under art. 806 (1) (1). I know the Local Govt. is satisfied that the duties entail unusual responsibility and require special capacity it can grant him Rs 650 as proposed, under art. 806. (1) (2). C.M.

My dear Harrison,

I observe C.S.R. 806.
iv. throws the duty of deciding the amount of salary upon the Govt., though laying down considerations which shall ordinarily guide Govt.

Supposing Govt. without assigning any reasons were under S. 37 of Madras Municipal Act I of 1854 to fix the pay of Surgeon Lieutenant Cornwall Health Officer, at Rs 650, would you raise objection?

Yours sincerely

ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE,

The Regulations do not require that the seasons be taken as assigned, but there seems to be a general understanding that the duties of the Health Officer entail unusual travelling to the health office.
16/3

I take it that under the act Govt can give a health officer any salary between 500 Rs and 1000 Rs but it cannot allow one of its own officers to take up foreign employ (and this is a principle except under the disciplinary rules of the C.S.N. I therefore think Govt should when giving 650 Rs assign its reasons accordingly to Act. 806

FOR ORDERS.

I don't see how art 806 (iv)(2) can be applied - The admission is restrictive "his pay shall not exceed the pay ordinarily allowed for similar duties in British Service" - But there are no "similar duties in British Service", as the Govt. doesn't anywhere, so far as I know, employ health officers. On the other hand s. 37 of (the) Act I of 1884 says that the "salary", which does not include house rent or ~~carriage~~ hire [V. S. 3(d)], shall not be less than Rs 500 - The Act of course overrides the C.S.R. - It strikes me that it will be convenient as a precedent both that D.C. should begin on the legal union & that that legal union should be supplemented by the grant of house rent & carriage allow.
as the latter case because a precedent will thus be afforded for (practically) raising the pay of the health officer & Engl. if at any time Govt. ~~there~~ or the Council should desire to pay either of them more than the Rs 1000 which is the limit of "salary" - Let D.C. get Rs 500 plus Rs 100 house rent & Rs 50 carriage allowance, that Rs 650

In appointing Surf. L.
Cornwall & fixing his pay at 650, may it be said that his duties will entail unusual responsibility & require Special Capacity? I submit it may.

H.P.
11.3.98

The attention of H.P. is respectfully called to the fact that under s. 3 Govt. can fix only the salary, & therefore has no power to order payment of house rent & carriage allowance.

H.P.
16.3.98

12/3/98
I think it would be best, for the reasons I give, to let the Council decide whether to give Rs 650 or Rs 1000.

Can Govt. give him house rent & Carriage allow.?

house rent & Rs 50 carriage allowance - If they don't agree we can simply under the Rs 650. There can be no difficulty in any case about the assignment of names to satisfy the A.G.
