Sir,

With reference to memorandum N^o III dated 29th January 1898, I have the honour to submit that the six classes according to which the Council propose to levy the fees are not rightly applicable to houses but are intended to serve as a guide in regulating the levy of fees according to the circumstances of the inmates of houses in individual cases. Under the existing circumstances in this Municipality (and I think it is so in Malabar as a whole) the appearance of houses seldom serves as a guide criterion of the condition of the inmates.

There are many families in Malabar who in spite of their present poverty still occupy their ancestral houses which have the external appearance of affluence it being the nature of the Malayalee not to part with his ancestral (Farwad) house even under the pressure of great privations and wants. It is also not rare to find persons really rich who occupy dwellings of a poor description. It is not therefore equitable to levy the fees in accordance with the

! the ~~for~~ description of houses and number of inmates.
The only standard that is admissible under such circumstances is that which is based upon an inquiry into the actual condition and means of the occupants of houses and their number and all this will have to be ascertained in each individual case before deciding under which class the inmates of a house should be charged.

The rates of fees proposed to be charged are per mansew.
